GROVER'S THEATER .- For the last time positively (says the advertisement) the Irish scenic drama "The Colleen Bawn" will be performed to-night. That its representation will give satisfaction is unquestionable, for the members of the Philadelphia Company are well up ia the parts, and the scenery and music is of the CANTERBURY .- "The House that Jack Built" is still one of the great attractions here, and Mr. Lea has not only a good company of pantomimists, but his excellent company of comedians and vocalists prove to be of no mean order in the concert hall line of business. Therefore, a splendid entertainment may be expected to-night.

VARIETIES.—Lina Windel, Augusta and Louisa Walby, Fanny May, Kittie Lee, Mag-gie Vernon, Kerns, Thompson and a host of others will appear to-night in a splendid bill of song. dance, pantomime and Ethiopian eccentricity. Go see them and laugh.

METROPOLITAN HALL.-The laughable musical sketch of "Jenny Lind" is one of the attractive features here just now. But the songs, dances and burlesques are well worth seeing, and occasion much amusement.

PUBLIC SCOOL CONCERT.—A concert of vocal music, for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of pianos for the grammar schools of this city, will be given by the pupils of the schools to-night at the Smithsonian Institution. The concert will be under the direction of Prof. Daniel, the music teacher, and as it is his opinion that the study of music in the schools will be materially aided by the possession of these instruments, all interested in the welfare of the schools should purchase tickets, and help the cause along.

CATHOLIC FAIR .- At Pompeian Hall, Georgetown, an admirably conducted fair for the benefit of the Catholic free schools of that city is in successful operation. It is well worth visiting. ANOTHER FAIR.-At Odd Fellows' Hall, 7th street, the ladies of Dr. Smith's (Fourth) Pres-byterian Church are holding a fair of a very interesting character.

Dissolving Views.—Another exhibition of phantasmagorial dissolving views will be given at Dunbarton-street Methodist Church, Georgetown, to-night.

MEETING OF THE COACHMAKERS .- An adjourned meeting of the Journeymen Coachmakers' Society was held last evening at the Delmonico," to take into consideration the propriety of asking for an increase of wages—the President, Mr. D. D. Clark, in the chair, and James F. Crown secretary.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to confer with the bosses in reference to an increase of wages, reported that they had had a conference with some of the bosses, but no definite arrangement was made. The committee had no doubt, from what the bosses said, that if the demands of the society were reasonable the bosses would willingly pay the increase.

The order of the evening—the consideration of the resolutions offered at the last meeting was taken up, the question being on the resolution of Mr. Irving, offered as a substitute, requesting the bosses to raise all wages below two dollars per day to that sum; above that sum, an advance of ten per cent.; pieceworkers to regulate their own prices, according to the quality of the work; leaving it optional with those whose wages have recently been raised, whether they make the demand or not, and reesting an answer on or before the 23d inst. Mr. Irving said that some thought that ten per cent. was not enough advance but it should be recollected that the wages of nearly every workman had been advanced within the past two years and that the society was in its infancy and therefore could not well sustain a strike. He believed that but few if any of the members wanted a strike. Mr. Mason moved to amend the resolution by inserting 15 per cent. He thought 10 per cent. was entirely too small an advance, and he believed that the bosses would give the former as willingly as the latter. Mr. Clark (Mr. Brooks in the chair) was in favor of the 10 per cent. demand and thought that the bosses would refuse to pay any more. The society should act with caution, and not make a demand which would cause a strike. The bosses had thus far acted well with the men, and had increased their pay so that now the inferior hands receive $12 per week, while two years ago the best did not receive above Mr. Mason did not think the demand for 15 per cent. would cause a strike. Mr. Clark stated that its effect would be to drive manufacturing out of the city. Mr. Mason said that most of the work was repairing, which could not be driven out.

Mr. Clark replied that a great amount of new work is being made here, and he hoped nothing would be done to compel bosses to go to dealing in Northern work in preference to having their work done under their own eyes. Mr. Mason's amendment to insert 15 per cent.

The resolution of Mr. Irving was adopted.

After the transaction of some unimportant business, the meeting adjourned.

FEES AND EMOLUMENTS OF DISTRICT OFFI-CIALS.—The letter of First Comptroller Taylor, in relation to the fees and emoluments of the Attorney and Marshal of the United States for the District of Columbia, and the clerks of said District, for the year ending December 31, 1863. also, the amount allowed to each of said officers for deputies, clerks, office rent, and other inci-dental expenses during the same period, says, among other things, that "Marshals of the District have not made returns of emoluments derived from fees allowed for the food of prisoners in jail. During 1863, said fees amounted to $32,736 60, but what profit these yielded I have no means of knowing. It is probable that the emoluments derived from transporting convicts to Albany have also been omitted.

"In the statement of the clerk's emoluments. his own personal compensation has not been deducted, because the law has not expressly and clearly fixed the rate, and I have not had time to consider the matter. The Glerk of the former Circuit and Criminal Court was allowed to retain the fees earned, $6,000 a year. "The Attorney General has employed an assistant to aid the District Attorney, with a salary, at first, at the rate of $1,500, which has been increased to $2,000. It appears by the tables submitted that the total fees of Ward H. Lamon in the bistrict, Circuit, Criminal, and Supreme Courts, for 1863, were $14,868.26, from which is to be deducted allowances to Geo. W. Phillips, (deputy,) $3,000; Wm. A. Mulloy, (deputy) $2,000; Robert Lamon, (clerk) $2,000. Marshal's maximum of compensation, $6,000. Balance due United States, $2,610. The total fees and emoluments of the District

Atterney, for 1863, are $11,069.32. His maximum of compensation, $6,000. Balance, $5,009. 32, paid into the treasury.

The total fees and emoluments of the clerks of the courts in the District of Columbia, for the year 1863, are: To John A. Smith, $1,761.24deduct $1,229; for subordinate clerks: to R. J. Meigs, $11,097.10—of which $1,165 is for the District Court, $5,721 for the Criminal Court, $4,218 for law and equity cases, &c.; $5,615 were paid for clerk hire, stationery, &c., leaving $5,451 as total net emoluments of R. J. Meigs. The maximum compensation is $6,000 a year.

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS.—The weather has been of such nature as to interfere with the catch of fish, this spring, on the Potomac. The supply for daily use has been tolerablebut few or none have been bought yet for salting. Shad are selling at from 50 to 75 cents per pair, and herrings at 20 cents per dozen.

The appearance of King street is much improved by the widening of the pavements, and the removal of awning posts, and other obstructions. A row of shade trees planted at the edge of the side walks on both sides, from the river to Hooff's run, would make it one of the handsomest streets to be found anywhere. -Gazette 20th

Much of the whisky that is smuggled into this city reaches us through Hunting Creek, boats being able easily to run up and discharge their cargoes on the beach inside the guard. The creek should be looked after. Speaking of whisky reminds us that a distinguished Surgeon recently made an examination of a keg of the article selzed a few days since, and declared upon his honor that one glass of it would set an able-bodied man insane, so villainous were the compounds from which it was prepared.

THE TUELL MURDER.—It has been stated in some of the reports of the Tuell murder case that Mr. Joseph M. Bradley, Jr., counsel for Tuell, said in his argument that he was satisfied that Tuell was not guilty of murder. This is a mistake. The words used by Mr. Bradley were " deliberate murder."
